

2010 SMMA “WINNERS POOL”

COST: $25(Due before week 1)

HOW TO PLAY: You must pick one team each week in the NFL who you think will win their game that weekend. If your team wins their game, you advance to the following week. If your team loses or ties that week, you are eliminated. The last person or persons in at the end of the regular season, (or sooner if nobody makes it to the end of the season) wins 50% of the total pot. The other 50% of the pot will be donated to the SMMA Athletic Association. Last Year’s total pot was $3300 and should be much bigger this year.

RULES: Below is a list of “Captains” who are helping run this pool. You must give one of the captains your pick by 5:00 PM each Friday(please use the same Captain each week). Thursday night games are off limits and cannot be picked in this contest. The captains will get everyone’s picks to Jerry Eichhorn by 10:00 AM Saturday morning. Jerry will get a list of all picks back to the captains at least one hour before any games start that weekend. (Any one who wants that list e-mailed to them, give your captain your e-mail address and you will get a copy as well) In this contest, you are allowed to pick the same team as many times as you like. Anyone who does not get their pick in by the deadline will automatically be given the Monday night home team as your pick that week. The $25 entry fee must be turned in before Week 1. Please contact one of the Captains to enter!
